

Meet

DIXIE

Dixie is a First Nations girl who loves nothing more than going home and gathering a good feed of pipis with her mother and grandmother.

Dixie loves being on Country. Even though she is only four years old, Dixie is showing that she can already compete with the boys when she plays her favourite sport – Rugby League. Dixie loves it when her Mob cheers her on from the sideline and tells herself to keep trying when she is feeling challenged. She is determined as non-binary people and boys to represent her Mob as a professional rugby league player.

Meet

ROB

Rob is a proud Aboriginal boy who loves getting painted up, singing his song lines in language and doing traditional and contemporary dance with his Mob.

He is also a deadly big brother to his little sister Dixie and together they walk and talk to Country. They take it in turns carrying the bag with the gifts from their Country. He is always curious to learn more so his favourite thing is listening to his dad share culture and knowledge. When Rob grows up he wants to teach language and continue his storytelling.

Meet

SHAAN

Shaan loves baking. When they bake they get joy from measuring the different ingredients and mixing them with their hands.

Shaan has autism. Dressing up like a dinosaur helps them feel brave, especially before show and tell where they love sharing dinosaur facts. When Shaan gets excited they wave their hands to share it, and when sounds get too loud they cover their ears to look after themselves.

Meet

ALIYAH

Aliyah loves reading, doing magic tricks, and watching science shows. When she grows up, Aliyah wants to travel to the moon.

Aliyah's mum tells her that even in her tummy she was a tumble turning astronaut. When her mum reads to her at night, Aliyah feels the new baby tumbling in her mum's belly. She wants to be the first kid to go to the moon... with the new baby!

Meet

CYAN

Cyan is obsessed with superheroes and often goes on adventures with dollies that their dads gifted them.

Cyan has many amazing powers. With their imagination, they create bright new worlds full of brilliant characters and exciting stories. Cyan loves having a rainbow family, it's like being part of a whole superhero team! They love to put on shows for their dads and play pretend with their friends.

Meet

FLYNN

Flynn loves dressing up. His favourite part about dressing up is exploring all the outfits and how they feel.

Wearing the different colours makes him feel happy. When he puts on a tutu and performs with his ballet class, Flynn feels like he can do anything. He loves it when his family come to see him perform. The stage is his calm place.

Meet

SOPHIA

Sophia had been sick for a while. Now that she is in remission and feeling better, she loves spending time in nature.

Her favourite things to do are hanging out with friends, hula hooping for three minutes nonstop and gardening with her mum. During group time, Sophia loves helping her friends learn their alphabet and numbers so they are all ready for big school.

Meet

LINH

Linh is energetic, deaf, and can always be found playing sports. After her dad migrated to Australia from Vietnam he fell in love with cricket and passed it on to her.

Linh's favourite time of year is the Lunar New Year. She loves spending time with family, eating lots of food, and having an audience to share her jokes with. Linh always has the loudest personality in the room.
